Health Insurance Reform SPECIAL MYTHBUSTER: Chamber of Commerce's Desperate Television	Advertisement
In an attempt to preserve the status quo and hold on to insurance profits, today the America’s Affordable Health Choices Act	U.S. Chamber
Myth	:
Fact	:
Myth	:
Fact	:

of

This myth has already been debunked by the non-partisan, independent FactCheck.org: "T projected New York Times post Tax-and-Spend Twittering	he Tha pis
In addition, the House bill would not tax health benefits in any way. Plain and simple.
Myth	÷
Fact	:
CBO also estimated that an additional provision to maintain	curren

The principle	of PAYGO is requiring	new p
Myth		:
Fact		:
The House bill	will put patients and doctors where they belong – in the driver's seat.	Insurance c
* * *
Note		: While

Question		:
Answer		: The p
America's	Affordable Health Choices Act creates a public health insurance option to offer	compet
The public	health insurance option is appropriated $2 billion for start-up expenses – but	this fundi
The cost of	the public health insurance plan to taxpayers will be $0. However, families and	busin
Question		:

Answer : There

.

.

[CBO Letter, 7/14/09]